Tub Frocks

In Linen, Ratine, Crash and Pipue.

Developed in white and the popular Spring colors—pink, blue, tan and lavender. Neatly and effectively trimmed in buttons and piping of contrasting colors.

Each of these dresses has some touch of distinction that makes it irresistible. In some this is gained by the use of such charming accessories as a kid belt or velvet bow with pearl buckle.

You will find these one-piece dresses a great comfort this summer. They stand innumerable tubbings—in fact are really improved by laundering. And it doesn't pay to make such dresses yourself when you can get a Bishop model at the prices quoted below.

SENATORS

VISIT ADA

PUBLIC BUILDINGS COMMITTEE SPENDS DAY AT NORMAL AND CEMENT PLANT

This morning the public buildings committee of the state senate arrived in Ada and spent most of the day inspecting the normal, and this afternoon they were taken to the cement plant where they were shown the works. The committee had been in Tishomingo looking over the granite quarries with a view to building the capitol of that material and Senator Shaw, a former resident of Ada, and one of the city's warmest friends in the legislature, prevailed on the members to pay a visit to Ada while enroute to Oklahoma City.

A number of citizens met the committee at the station and took them to the normal in autos. At the noon hour luncheon was served and at its conclusion each senator made a few remarks. All five of the Democratic members declared their opposition to the governor's policy of abolishing a number of state schools, and declared their friendliness to Ada in particular. However, Senator Dutton, the Republican member, declared himself a Cruce man and that although the Tonkawa preparatory school is in his district, he thought the state had too many schools and is in favor of abolishing several. Before the party broke up Senator Shaw moved a vote of thanks for the hospitality enjoyed, and the motion was unanimously adopted.

The Senatorial party consisted of Senators Barrett, Sorrells, Dutton, McClintic, Shaw and Aycock. Senators Barrett, Shaw and Aycock were accompanied by their wives.

Senator Aycock was a resident of Ada in the days of the town's infancy and it has a very warm place in his heart even yet.

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF SPANISH KING

Madrid, April 13—For the third time in his reign King Alfonso narrowly escaped today being the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life.

Three shots were fired at the King this afternoon in the streets of the capital, by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owes his escape to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff, he was riding along the Calle de Atocha, returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the King's horse with one hand, presenting a revolver point-blank with the other.

King Saves Self

The King, realizing the situation, with lightning rapidity, dug his spurs into his horse, which reared violently.

His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the King's breast, struck the horse on the neck, but so close was it that the King's left hand, glove was blackened by the powder discharge.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each others arms, struggling furiously.

The would-be assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

Assailant Fights Furiously

At the sound of the first shot the King's Staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the monarch's assailant, who fought fiercely in the grip of four policemen before he was overpowered and handcuffed.

King Alfonso as soon as he saw that the man had been secured, raised himself in the saddle, turned to the crowd and gave a military salute and shouted in a ringing voice, "Long live Spain!"

He then remounted and reassured his staff saying, "It is nothing, gentlemen."

The News reporter paid Otis Weaver a call Sunday evening. He had been improving several days prior to Saturday, but a new abscess appears to be forming in the region of the left kidney and the surgeons fear that another operation may be necessary. A message this morning, stated that he seemed to be a little better.

AN EXAMPLE OF AWAKENED CONSCIENCE

That man's conscience never dies, even though it may sleep a long time is evidenced by the following letter received by an Ada merchant this morning:

"You may think it strange, but I have somewhat of a confession to make to you. About 11 of 12 years ago I stole a small size bucket of lard from you and as the lard has saved me, I want to make my wrongs right with those I have wronged. Now if you will answer my letter and tell me what I owe you for the lard I will at once send it to you. So wishing you well I remain yours truly."

News dispatches state that Felix Diaz will have no opposition in his candidacy for the presidency. This is doubtless correct, for it is customary in Mexico to remove opponents before the balloting begins.

The present congressional districts are an elaborate piece of gerrymandering on the part of Bird McGuire and the Republican Congress, but it seems to suit Gov. Cruce better than anything the present democratic legislature can figure out.

The News is not ready to announce positively that Spring has arrived to stay, but it hopes that the gentle maiden has made up her mind to that effect. These flirtations with old man Winter have lowered her somewhat in our estimation.

This being an off year politically we have been looking forward to a dull summer. However, Tulsa threatens to liven things up by pulling off another capitol fight. That is all right as far as it goes, but we will bet our old hat that a bunch of our Ada boys can pull off a badger fight any old time that for genuine interest will beat a little old capitol scrap all to hollow.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs which unfortunately are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hair, however handsome it may be, makes a person look old. We all know the advantages of being young. Aside from the good impression a youthful appearance makes on others simply knowing that you are "looking fit" gives one courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of being old on account of gray hairs when a simple remedy will give your hair a youthful color and beauty in a few days' time?

Most people know the common garden sage acts as a color restorer and scalp tonic as well. Our grandmothers used a "Sage Tea" for keeping their hair dark, soft and luxuriant. In Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of sage, combined with sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. A few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair.

Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' treatment. All druggists sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

FLOOD SITUATION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Memphis, Tenn., April 14—Spreading rapidly over the lowlands of Eastern Arkansas through gaps torn in the levee last week, the Mississippi river is fast losing ground in its onslaught on the embankments along the central reaches of the waterway. So materially had conditions improved today that word was sent to a half dozen camps to shift their forces to points south of Helena, Ark. where a desperate fight will be necessary if the flood is to be controlled. Along the White river front at Medoc and Old Town, Ark., the situation is already acute and a stretch of the dike opposite Friars Point, Miss., is showing signs of weakening. North of Memphis and to within a few miles of Helena, the river continues to fall. At Memphis the stage tonight was 43.6 feet, a fall of two-tenths during the day. At Helena the river rose one-tenth in twenty-four hours.

Luxora, Barfield and Oceola, the three points north of Memphis regarded as still endangered, reported the river falling tension rapidly relaxing. These points where the swollen water way pounds its hardest, will not be free of danger, however, for several days.

ELKS WILL PLAY INDIANS THURSDAY

The Ada Elks baseball team will play a game Thursday afternoon with the Sioux Indians. The Elks are now in fine trim and with the practice they have had of late it is believed they will win. The game will be played at the jinx that has been pursuing them to date. The Elks have the men all right, it is just a matter of practice and then things will begin to come their way.

Winning the Greatest Things.

It is flattering to our lower natures to be envied. But for the esteem that is worth having, one kindly action, one tender, considerate word, will do more than the fullest measure of glittering success. Hustling, pushing, grabbing, will win many rewards according to their desert; the nature of the reward meets the nature of the effort. But they will not win affection, they will not win tenderness and love. —Exchange.

Undaunted Lover.

"Muriel," said the old gentleman, sharply, "that young man you had in the parlor last night is dull of comprehension. All I had to do was cough when the other chap remained too late, and they would take the hint and depart. Did this one say anything when I coughed last night?" "Yes," replied the beautiful daughter; "he said the next time he called he was going to bring you some cough-drops."

WHY CONNECTICUT IS PROUD

People of "Land of Steady Habits" Had Rare Foresight, and Are Getting Results.

Connecticut is proud to call herself the Land of Steady Habits, writes Governor Baldwin in Leslie's. She is slow to adopt new experiments in government. She knows that they often are two edged swords and cut both ways. Connecticut early adopted compulsory education. She has therefore always had an intelligent people. She believes in God, and has a religious people, largely Roman Catholic. But two states are smaller in territory, but 17 are smaller in population. She saw many years ago that the money to be made out of farming was, on the whole, less than that to be made out of manufactures in a state where the people had a well cultivated, inventive faculty and regular habits of trained industry. She thus passed from the ranks of the agricultural states to those of the manufacturing states, and she has grown rich because of the change. She still has, however, large farming interests—as large as they ever were. Her climate favors them. More varieties of trees flourish in Connecticut than in any other state. More varieties of birds are found there than in any other state.

BETTER THAN AVERAGE HOME

Author Thinks Children Better Off in Institutions Than Under the Care of Their Own Mothers.

"An orphan's home can bring up a child, better than the average mother. Seventy per cent. of the American homes are not fit for a child to live in. They have not the right conditions."

Theodore Dreiser, the novelist, emphasized his words by his favorite method, that of rocking backward and forward vigorously in his chair.

"The parents are losing their influence on their children," he continued. "The teachers of our public schools see more of the child and influence his point of view more than the parent."

"The moving picture show, the newspaper, the public library, the settlement, all are drawing the child from the home, giving him new ideals and a new point of view."

"We have made a fetish of the home; surrounded it with a false ideal. We have made it a thing of sentiment instead of reality. Within a century I believe we will have turned to the idea of making the child the property of the state, which will exercise supervision over the homes taking the children away when they find surroundings bad."

There will be institutions for the raising of these children, and I believe they will do better than the average mother."—Chicago Examiner.

English Averse to Change.

There is nothing more amusing in all the quaint and curious customs of the English house of commons than the strange ceremony which marks the termination of each session.

The moment the house is adjourned, loud-voiced messengers and policemen cry out in the lobbies and corridors: "Who goes home?"

These mysterious words have sounded night after night for centuries through the hall of parliament. The custom dates from a time when it was necessary for members to go home in parties, accompanied by men carrying links or torches for common protection against the footpads who infested the streets of London. But though that danger has long since passed away, the question "Who goes home?" is still asked, night after night, during the session of parliament.

No reply is given, and none is expected.

Are All Children Liars?

Every teacher knows that every child is a liar, but he does not know that savage man is also a liar, that the two phases are comparable, and that it is merely the desire of the child, as, indeed, with the savage man, to tell you something which will please you, and to concoct the most astonishing fabrications to satisfy that desire. A teacher knowing this would not brand the child as a liar and punish it accordingly, but by careful conversation cure the lying phases of child life. So, too, there are many other phases, such as playing with fire and the formation of boy gangs, hoodlums, etc., all, in fact, racial traits.—From "Childhood" by Frederick Davis.

Paris Needs Skyscrapers.

Paris is realizing that it is faced with the problem of a greatly overcrowded business center, and the only solution of the matter seems to be the adoption of the American skyscraper, which is being bitterly opposed by the true Parisian, who regards the innovation as destructive to many of the famous structures and disastrous to the appearance of the city. It is a fight of the new against the old, and means the elimination of many cherished institutions and time-honored customs of the typical Frenchman of the gay metropolis.

Good Kindler.

In some sections kindlings are very hard to secure, owing to a lack of timber of all kinds. An inexpensive kindler may be made as follows: Take one pound of resin three ounces of tallow, and while still hot after melting mix with fine sawdust, straw or any inflammable material and mold in small pieces about one inch square. One pair will start a fire in the stove.

OKLAHOMAN WRITEUP OF ADA SCOUTS

Sunday's Oklahoman contained a cut of the Boy Scouts of Ada together with the following writeup of the troop:

One would have to go a long way to find a harder more energetic, more manly and more willing bunch of youngsters than is numbered among the members of the Boy Scouts troop organized in Ada, something more than a month ago by T. O. Cullins, who was elected scout master. There are forty boys in this group and each and every member is an energetic worker in support of the fundamental principles of the order, following as closely as possible, the many rules by which members of the organization are governed in their daily home life. In addition to the troop of Boy Scouts, Ada has a local council composed of some of the leading business men will help the boys in every way possible, and greatly assist Scout Master Cullins in making the boys realize more fully the importance of the organization. Quite a few "hikes" have been enjoyed by the Ada Boy Scouts, and others and longer ones are to be participated in during the coming summer. It is also probable a few days' camp will be enjoyed at various times throughout the summer, when the boys will be taught woodcraft, scout duty, and many other interesting things a young man should know. Among the "hikes" in contemplation, and the one the Scouts are looking forward to with more zeal than any other just at the present time, is the one to Oklahoma City, which will be made a few days after the close of the school term. The lads will make The Oklahoman office their headquarters while in Oklahoma.

ma City and plan one of the most enjoyable trips imaginable. Word has been received here that the Oklahoma City troop of Scouts will meet the local Scouts on the outskirts of the city and escort them to The Oklahoman building. A baseball game between the Oklahoma City Scouts and those from Ada is being arranged, and promises to be a very exciting contest.

The members of the Ada troop of Boy Scouts are: T. O. Cullins, scout master; Guy Woodward, Vivian Powers, T. O. Cullins, Jr., Marion Heard, Wesley Chaney, Charley Rayburn, Wiley Chaney, Sanford Brown, Frank Spaw, Duke Rushing, John Keltner, Hobart Curtis, Ralph Heard, John Craig, Geo. Fentem, Carlos Brents, Larkin Winn, Ulysses Winn, Jack Banks, Carl Sanders, Lawrence Green, Butler Grey, Jim Keltner, Langford Shaw, Ernest Wood, Whitman, Fentem, Albert Croxton, Floyd Haynes, Allie Foster Chaney, Scott Morrison, Nathan Levin, Ed Brents and Milton Moore.

Ada Druggist Deserves Praise.

The Ramsey Drug Co. deserves praise from Ada people for introducing here the simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture, known as Adler-i-ka. This simple German remedy first became famous by curing appendicitis and it has now been discovered that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. Its quick action is a big surprise to people.

No Cause for Alarm.

"I thought I told you not to eat any porterhouse steak without my permission." "So you did, doc; so you did." "Then why are you disobeying my order?" "This won't delay the paying of your bill, doc! This steak is being paid for by my friend here."

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised.

This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

MRS. O. J. DAVIDSON CLAIMED BY DEATH

This morning Mrs. Ira L. Davidson, wife of O. J. Davidson and daughter of L. C. Lindsey and wife, died. The funeral services and interment took place at Rosedale cemetery at 4 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. W. A. Nettles conducting the services. The deceased had suffered for many months from tuberculosis, and the family had spent several months on the coast of Texas in hope of finding relief, returning to Ada only two or three days ago.

Mrs. Davidson was stricken in the very prime of life, being less than 27 years of age. She was a consistent Christian and a member of the Methodist church. No lady stood higher in the citizenship of Ada than Mrs. Davidson. Her many fine traits of character made devoted friends of all who knew her. Besides her husband she leaves four small children to mourn her loss.

HOUSE CUTS OUT SIX DISTRICT JUDGES

Oklahoma City, April 14.—The third of the four big bills prepared by the democratic house caucus Thursday and Friday, the judicial redistricting bill, was passed finally by the house Saturday, and is now ready for the senate.

Six district judges are eliminated a direct saving of $18,000 per annum in salary, and nearly half that much again in stenographic fees and traveling expenses.

The house has previously passed the bill consolidating county offices, and the bill cutting down salaries. The congressional redistricting bill, the fourth of the caucus measures, yet remains to be passed, and is likely to have a harder time than the others, since several democratic legislators, estimated from seven to fourteen in number, say they will vote against it on passage.

Dr. Sears, of the East Central State Normal of Ada, lectured at the high school building Saturday from 10 to 11:30 a. m. on the "Balkan War," before the city teachers, county superintendent and a number of rural teachers. S. A. Maxwell, lectured on the subject of teaching bookkeeping in the high school. Both addresses were very much appreciated by those present.—Coalgate Courier.

IF POPE PIUS X.

SHOULD DIE

Rome, April 14.—The Pope is not granting audiences, and on the orders of his physicians he is restricting as much as possible his interviews with those members of the Court of the Vatican who are compelled to confer with him about current official business. That the venerable Pontiff is in extremely bad health is no longer denied, though the true nature of his ailments has not been disclosed. According to some, he is suffering from kidney disease. Others declare that it is a hardening of the arteries. The most optimistic take the view that his weakness and depression arise from his last attack of gout.

While opinion differs as to the nature of the Pope's illness there is one matter on which all well-informed persons in Rome seem agreed—that the stormy and somewhat eventful career of Pius X. is rapidly drawing to a close. This opinion is reflected in the discussion as to his probable successor on the chair of St. Peter. As yet this discussion is not heard beyond the ordinary, yet there is not the slightest sign of canvassing or intrigue among the Cardinals. Nevertheless the persistence of the disquieting reports in regard to the Pope's health has aroused a deep interest in a situation into which a conclave may come at any time.

There is one point about the papal succession that it is well for Americans to bear in mind. It is that the Pope will not be one of their number. Nor will he be one who speaks, as a native to it, the English language. Indeed, the next Pope is certain to be an Italian. The American and English Cardinals, of whom there are six who speak English as a native tongue, and not in close touch with the ruling forces of the Church, since most of them are of but recent appointment, and all reside long distances from Rome. Precedence in the Sacred College is of slow growth, perhaps slower than in any other great body. It is therefore only men of years and of familiarity with conditions who can hope to rule, except in cases of emergency.

In the Sacred College at the moment there are three factions. The exact strength of each is not known. Each has its candidate in the sense that in each there is one Cardinal who is a leader. There may, therefore, be said to be three Cardinals who stand out above all others as most likely, were a conclave to be held at this time, to be chosen to the great chair.

The first Cardinal Rampolla, the former secretary of state, a member of the Curia or administrative body of the church, and the head priest of St. Peter's Cathedral. Cardinal Rampolla, is considered to be almost certain of thirty votes from among the sixty-two who voted for him at the last conclave, when Austria's veto prevented his election. It may be assumed that those who voted for him at the last conclave will again support him, while it is well known that many of his former adversaries are now his supporters. Furthermore there will be no mention of a veto at the next conclave.

Cardinal Rampolla stands foremost among the leaders in the Catholic Church who would bring the Vatican into line with modern thought, modern action and modern methods. Few men in the world have a wider personal acquaintance or greater correspondence list and when he is chosen, the whole world, Catholic and Protestant, would hail the step as one of progress along perfectly safe lines in religion and scholarship.

Cardinal De Lai, also a member of the Curia, perhaps stands second alone to Cardinal Rampolla as a possibility for the chair of St. Peter. In many respects he is the exact opposite of the former secretary of state. His tendencies are reactionary and he stands strictly for a continuance of the present policies. He is a close personal friend of Pope Pius X., who last year promoted him to the exclusive list of Cardinal bishops, and gave him to the see of Sabina.

The third of the so-called leading candidates is the Cardinal Maffi, archbishop of Pisa, who has the advantage of living outside of Rome and not being a member of the Curia. He is a modern man in every respect, but such a modern one to have have a large following in the Sacred College. He is friendly with the Italian Government, and as Pope would cooperate with it to an extent that others might not. He is only fifty-five, a rather young man to make a Pope of, yet he has been long enough in the Sacred College to be in touch with all elements in it.

There are several members of the Sacred College who undoubtedly will receive serious consideration when the time comes to elect a successor to Pius X., but the general impression in Rome is that the selection

WARMER WEATHER

FOR COMING WEEK

Washington, April 14.—Slightly warmer temperatures, less rainfall and fair weather generally east of the Rockies during the fore part of the week are the probabilities offered by Chief Willis L. Moore of the Weather Bureau in his weekly bulletin issued tonight.

The distribution of atmospheric pressure over the Northern Hemisphere, says the bulletin, "is such as to indicate that temperatures will average near above normal the coming week in all parts of the country east of the Rocky mountains and slightly below normal on the Pacific slope. The rainfall during the week will be generally below normal."

Fair weather will prevail during the next several days over the great Rocky Mountains, while rains will be frequent during the week in the Northern Pacific states.

"The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear over the Far West Monday or Tuesday, cross the Rocky Mountains about Wednesday, the great central valleys Thursday or Friday and the Eastern states near the close of the week; this disturbance will be preceded by warm weather, be attended by showers and thunderstorms and be followed by cooler weather, with frosts in the Northwest states and the Rocky Mountain and plateau region."

The importance to Oklahoma of the state development conference to be held in Tulsa on April 24th, can hardly be estimated. If any plan can be worked out whereby all interests may be united for the agricultural development of this state, the Tulsa meeting should furnish it. Farmers, merchants, bankers, jobbers, manufacturers; men of every business and profession will get together there to discuss better farm methods and ways by which these methods can be put to practice generally in Oklahoma. It is believed that the crop production of this state can be doubled without adding a single acre to the number now being farmed and it is promised that practical men will be present in Tulsa on April 24th to tell how this may be done. Every farmer and business man in this country who leave his work for that day should go to Tulsa and take part in the great meeting.

That's what you say when you tell your friends about your shopping expeditions.

It may be the principals of the store, the service it offers or the quality of the goods it sells that you are discussing. But the difference to you means your satisfaction or disappointment.

You will find when you deal with the merchants who advertise in the NEWS that the difference stands always for satisfaction. Each store values its reputation too much to risk disappointing you. Each wants you good will. So they direct every effort to serve you best and give you the best values.
